

Personal Conduct Policy

As a member of Lincoln Running Company Nebraska, you are expected to exhibit attitudes and actions that display a positive and respectful attitude towards fans, opposing runners, race officials and others who you come into contact with while wearing any Lincoln Running Company Nebraska or Lincoln Running Company store apparel, no matter the outcome of the race.

As a member of the team, you are expected to set a positive example for those around you. Any actions deemed to be damaging to the character and reputation of Lincoln Running Company Nebraska or the Lincoln Running Company store will put your membership with the team in jeopardy. A member whose conduct is considered detrimental to the reputation of the either the team or the store will be subject to a review of their membership by the board.

By checking the box on the application regarding reading the personal conduct policy, you are agreeing to follow the code of conduct stated above and agree to do whatever necessary to enhance the reputation of Lincoln Running Company Nebraska and the Lincoln Running Company store, realizing that failure to do so will result in a review of membership.